

SDG&E has Followed the City of San Diego's Public 1,163-Day-Long Franchise Agreements Renewal Process from Day 1

- 2018

 - Day 1 April: SDG&E sends letter to the City of San Diego expressing readiness to kick off franchise renewal process
 - May: The City responds claiming it will notify SDG&E once ready
- 2019

 - Day 471 July: San Diego Budget & Government Efficiency Committee holds informational public hearing on SDG&E's franchise agreements
 - October: City Council approves City consultants after 3 RFPs
- 2020

 - Day 688 February: SDG&E submits response to City's public Request for Expressions of Interest
 - March: The City publicly posts the responses to the Request for Expressions of Interest. SDG&E meets with the Mayor's office and consultants to verbally present ideas for "modernizing" the franchises
 - July: The City publicly releases reports from consultants that recommend the City secure a new franchise with an investor-owned utility and advise against municipalization
 - Day 905 September 23: The City releases the Invitations to Bid for the gas and electric franchises
 - October 1: SDG&E files advice letter notifying the California Public Utilities Commission of the potential removal of the franchise fee differential if the franchise agreements are not renewed or extended before Jan. 17, 2021
 - Day 935 October 23: SDG&E submits its responses to the Invitations to Bid
 - November 9: City Council President Georgette Gómez writes to Mayor Faulconer stating she will not be docketing the responses to the Invitations to Bid and invites the Mayor to docket a one-year extension of the existing agreements
 - November 10-11: SDG&E contacts the City's bid representative and the City responds stating that the Mayor's office intends to keep the bids sealed until a new Council President is elected
 - November 12: SDG&E writes letter to the City Attorney urging the City Council to open the responses to the Invitations to Bid
 - Day 991 December 18: The City cancels the Invitations to Bid process without selecting a new partner for its gas and electric franchises
 - Day 1,003 December 30: SDG&E and the City come to agreement on short-term franchise extension through June 1, 2021
 - Day 1,082 March 19: Mayor Todd Gloria releases new bidding proposal for San Diego's gas and electric franchises
 - 2021
 - Day 1,110 April 16: City of San Diego opens the responses to Mayor Todd Gloria's Invitations to Bid for the gas and electric franchises. As with the first Invitation to Bid, SDG&E remained the only bidder
 - Day 1,138 May 14: Mayor Todd Gloria announces new agreement with SDG&E on gas and electric franchises
 - Day 1,149 May 25: City Council approves the new franchise agreements and a climate, safety and equity focused Energy Cooperation Agreement with SDG&E
 - Day 1,163 June 8: City Council reaffirms its vote to approve the new franchise agreements with SDG&E

Participated in multiple public outreach sessions

Submitted comprehensive bids that reflect our commitment to the residents and businesses of San Diego

Conducted several briefings with each San Diego Council office

Demonstrated SDG&E's value to the community

San Diegans depend on SDG&E to power their daily lives. We are proud of our strong record in providing clean, safe and reliable service over the past 140 years.

Visit PoweringSanDiegosFuture.com to learn more